

GREAT BELIEVER

Junior Project Manager

Brooklyn, NY

Great Believer is a design agency for nonprofits. We specialize in designing websites, logos and print materials – all tailored to the mission of each organization we serve. In the past year alone, we've teamed up with great nonprofits like Make the Road New York, The Writers Guild of America East and The New York Women's Foundation.

We're looking for a reliable, detail-oriented and good-natured Junior Project Manager to work at our South Williamsburg HQ.

In this full-time position, you'll help to manage a range of Great Believer projects and work directly with our clients.

Our ideal candidate can confidently say the following:

“I’m detail-oriented.”

- Though we’re a small team, we stay very busy. Your ability to stay meticulously organized and manage competing priorities will lead to meaningful results.

“I’m a fast learner.”

- Beginning on day one, you’ll become acutely aware of our process and ongoing projects. We’ll definitely put your brain to the test.

“I’m a strong communicator.”

- We emphasize clear communication with our team and our clients. Simply put: it’s the key to our success.

“I’m a great planner.”

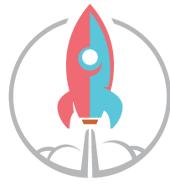

- Thoughtful planning is the key to managing our ongoing projects. You’ll create detailed schedules that ensure our clients meet their deadlines and our team stays on track.

“I’m passionate about nonprofits.”

- Great Believer exists to empower nonprofits. We’re looking for someone who’s motivated and inspired by mission-driven work.

“I value collaboration.”

- Teamwork makes the dream work. So whether you’re brainstorming process improvements or reviewing designs, you’ll work closely with different members of our team.
